Stop in at the Reconnect, Washington! Coffee Café

Monday, 9:00—11:30

Conferences are always fast-paced and scheduled to the max, giving attendees little or no time to catch up with FCS colleagues. Celebrating the Past and Sustaining the Future is dependent upon our connections so we've provided a time, location and even the coffee for Washington FCS professionals to sit for a bit and reconnect!

Pre-Conference Tours

WAFCS is offering Two Free Tours!
Monday, October 26 ~~~~~ 8:45 — 11:30

Tour 1 — LIBERTY ORCHARDS FACTORY TOUR

Started in 1912 and using an old family recipe and local fruit, Liberty Orchards is the company that makes world famous Aplets and Cotles. This is an interesting tour for anyone in Food Science and the development of food products. Free samples are available, plus shopping in their country store.

Tour 2 — APPLE ANNIE ANTIQUE GALLERY

One of America's Top Antique Malls, the 70,000 square feet of collectibles with 200+ dealers. The mall features high end art glass to depression glass, early American oak furniture to shabby chic; 19th and 20th century pottery. Studebaker's, a 50's diner, is located inside Apple Annie's and also features local baked items if you want a quick snack.

Contact Eileen Knobbs at 425-885-1380 or Rob_Knobbs@msn.com to make reservations. Remember this is FREE, FREE, FREE! Both are only 6 miles from the Convention Center. We are also looking for drivers. See you in Wenatchee.

Take a Stroll in the Washington Family & Consumer Sciences Hall of Fame Exhibit

To help celebrate this magnificent milestone of the 100th Anniversary of Family and Consumer Sciences, WAFCS will be recognizing all past and current members of AAFCS/WAFCS at the Fall Conference in Wenatchee on October 26th and 27th with a Hall of Fame Exhibit. Current and past area affiliates have been invited to participate by putting together display boards for viewing during the conference. WAFCS is also going to honor as many past officers and award winners as they can gather information on.

You, too can participate by: 1) sending us pictures, letters and other memorabilia and, 2) attending the Fall Conference to join WAFCS and WA-FACSE in this very special celebration.
